Now you have 1 minute to study your card. (1 min)

Are you ready? Let's discuss the topic.

Examiner: We are taking part in an international working group meeting about civil organisations. Let's discuss the topic together.

THE INVOLVEMENT OF CIVIL ORGANIZATIONS IN POLICY MAKING

Introduction: Civil organizations have an important role in policy making as they are made up of people that have the same everyday life as ordinary citizens. Their proximity to the citizens helps them see a problem or the solution for it clearly and more realistically.

- different viewpoints
  - Civil organizations enable professionals from different fields to be involved in decision-making.
- different interests
  - Civil organizations are more familiar with the circumstances of the poor and vulnerable.
- minorities
  - The involvement of civil organisations ensures that the rights of citizens will be promoted.
